JUNIATA TODAY

During the academic year 1969-70, Juniata has enjoyed a good measure of progress. On the academic front, many faculty and students have worked diligently and effectively in the quest for substantial improvements. In the development area, 1969-70 will be remembered as the year in which we concluded, a year ahead of schedule, the first phase of our three-part $10.1-million capital funds effort. This urgently needed program is aimed at 1976—the year that Juniata enters its second century of service. The year, 1969-70, will be remembered, too, as the time when current fund requirements made imperative the establishment of our new Annual Support Fund.

In virtually everything we are doing, there is evidence of a much needed recognition of Juniata's continuing need for change. A few lose sight of the fact that change is inevitable. Most people on the campus and in our various constituencies express, through their words and efforts, a realization that Juniata must not accept change but must, instead, create it in responsive and meaningful ways. Only in this way can a college meet, as it must, the needs of students in each succeeding and changing generation.

DR. JOHN N. STAUFFER
President

STUDENTS AND FACULTY

We continue to work in a variety of ways to increase constructive interaction among students, faculty, trustees and alumni. During the past year, for example, this occurred in an especially valuable meeting of the President's Advisory Committee, comprised of five students, five faculty members and five trustees. Knowing the value of student participation in faculty committees, it is important to bring the knowledge, concern and wisdom of faculty and students to the work of the various trustee committees.

On June 1, I placed before the Board a strong recommendation that we should invite faculty and students to sit with the various committees of the Board and to come as observers to meetings of the Board and of its executive committee. The recommendation was approved and will take effect during the academic year 1970-71. This was done in order to express the trust that is an essential part of Juniata life and in order to improve the sense of community that we have here.

ADMINISTRATION

In the administrative area, we have worked toward a larger measure of delegation of responsibility to the respective administrative officers.

The administrative reorganization which was implemented a year ago has proved to be valuable especially in the areas of development and college relations. Further reorganization will be pursued in order that the administrative functions of the institution may make their contribution to the general improvement that is desired.

The business functions of the College have been greatly facilitated by the appointment of a Controller who has helped to develop totally new budgetary procedures. These procedures take into account the needs of various educational programs and of administrative functions. They fix specific responsibility for control in each program or service category. The values of this program budgeting procedure have been well demonstrated through the cooperation of department chairmen and members of the administrative staff.

We shall continue to consider those ways in which we can make the administrative function more effective so that it will facilitate the work of faculty and students and will help to create those circumstances that will best lead to fulfillment of the College's educational objectives.

TRUSTEES

A year ago the Board of Trustees adopted new by-laws, the benefits of which have been demonstrated in a number of ways. Especially valuable was the creation of a separate budget committee and of a separate committee on finance and investments. It is apparent that in many respects the effectiveness of the work of the Board has been enhanced by the implementation of these by-laws.

Juniata now faces the necessity of finding able and dedicated men to fill vacancies on the Board of Trustees. We have, unhappily, come to a realization that some of the men who have served best for many years have reached the point where they deservedly want to be relieved of their trustee responsibility. Dr. W. Newton Long, Sr., who has been an outstanding trustee for 48 years, has, to my deep regret, given his resignation because of ill health and of his conviction that a younger man should take his place. Likewise, Mr. William R. Flory, who has served his alma mater as trustee for 24 years and as alumni leader for a much longer time, has asked to be relieved because of ill health. At this time, too, I must report with sorrow and respect the passing of Mr. Samuel M. Hess, who, as a trustee, gave loving and earnest service to his College since 1930.

Fortunately, Mr. Edwin L. Kennedy of New York City joined the Board of Trustees at our meeting on October 18, 1969. Mr. Kennedy's value for Juniata has been clearly demonstrated as he has provided useful guidance to the Committee on Finance and Investment. Even more importantly he has a deep respect for Juniata and for the essential role to be played in American life by the private liberal arts college. I am pleased to announce also that the trustees, on June first, elected Mr. LeRoy S. Maxwell, Sr. '36, and Mr. Klare S. Sunderland '56 to regular appointments on the Board. Mr. Rex W. Hershberger '50, was nominated by the Alumni Association and elected by the Board to a three-year term as alumni trustee.

ACADEMIC LIFE

The work of a vast part of the student body continues to be marked by diligence and seriousness of purpose. This quality of earnestness has been a measure of the unique value of education at Juniata, and it is to be hoped that we shall continue to see it pass on from generation to generation of students. Obviously, the key to this is the earnestness and dedication also of the faculty for which I am personally grateful.

It is in this context that the work of the Task Force on the Juniata Program goes forward with excellent faculty and student leadership. We must all be concerned about making the small liberal arts college—specifically Juniata—viable and valuable in the decade of the 1970's and beyond. Composed of seven faculty members and two students, the Task Force is charged with the responsibility of analyzing the meaning and effect of the total experience of students on the Juniata campus. In addition to the intensive and dedicated work of this committee, there have been campus-wide discussions, and a variety of special committees of faculty, students, and alumni have been created to give attention to special areas of concern. The Task Force will present its recommendations to the faculty during 1970-71. While it is premature to attempt a preview of the outcome of the work of the Task Force, it is realistic to express confidence that following the implementation of the new program—probably in 1972—students will be greatly benefited and the members of the faculty will find their work even more rewarding than at present.

COLLEGE RELATIONS

We continue to work in all appropriate ways to interpret the College to its various constituencies knowing that we need always to have their understanding and support. This includes, of course, such basic groups as alumni and parents and also the community of Huntingdon and the larger community of the Juniata Valley.

This year we have taken steps also to broaden our contacts with the Church of the Brethren and specifically with the three districts in Pennsylvania which support Juniata. We have done this through the establishment of a Church Relations Council which is composed as follows: three district executives; three trustees, one from each district; and three members at large, one from each district. Additional members include students, faculty and administrative officers from the campus, including in particular the Campus Minister. The purpose of this group is to improve communications between the Church and the College and to work toward those activities and relationships which will prove to be mutually beneficial.

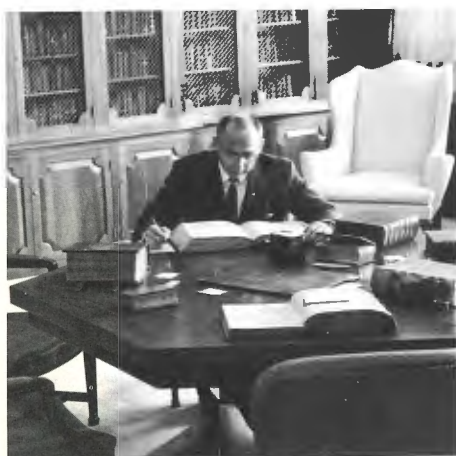

PHYSICAL PLANT

The new residence halls, which house 208 students, were ready for occupancy in September, and have been named in honor of four trustees, William R. Flory, Joseph V. Kline, W. Newton Long, Sr., and Robert E. Miller (deceased), who have given notably of their efforts, wisdom and substance in the advancement of Juniata.

This residential complex, built at a cost of over $1.6-million, is two separate buildings each comprising two four-story units, which are known as the Flory, Kline, Long and Miller Houses. The entire complex will be known as the East Houses, since the buildings lie on the east side of the campus. Constructed of brick and stone, the buildings are of contemporary architecture. With the opening of these new facilities the College is now able to house more than 90% of its student body. East Houses are the result of long-range planning under Juniata's $10.1-million "Margin of Difference" capital campaign.

The Board of Trustees has determined the need for the demolition of Oneida Hall, Brumbaugh Hall, and Students Hall. After hearing the recommendation made by architectural consultants and engineers, the Trustees voted in favor of the demolition in order to assure safe and modern facilities for all students. The architects' specific recommendations for razing the old buildings listed poor physical condition and inadequate safety standards as chief reasons for demolition; the buildings were described as unsafe for future use and could not be restored or remodeled without prohibitive cost.

It is my opinion that sometime during the '70's, but not immediately, we must work for fulfillment of the remaining needs in the following order of priority: classrooms and other facilities for departments in the Humanities Division; indoor athletic and recreational facilities; and administrative facilities. As we approach the Centennial year, 1976, we shall have a more accurate appraisal of the facilities needed for a student body of approximately 1300. At that time efforts will doubtless be launched to fulfill the needs as they are then determined. We are fortunate in having the quality and number of facilities already available, most of them completed within the last decade, and we must be ever thankful for those benefactors who have made these facilities possible.

FINANCIAL DEVELOPMENT

The alumni, trustees, the wider community of Huntingdon and other friends are to be especially commended and thanked for their part in the early and successful conclusion of Phase I of the Margin of Difference development program. We achieved $3,003,645 in December, 1969, when $2.8-million had been our objective for December, 1970. Special thanks are due to Mr. Cecil E. Loomis, Honorary Chairman of the Margin of Difference; Dr. John C. Baker, Executive Campaign Chairman; Mr. Lester M. Rosenberger and Dr. John B. Montgomery, Chairman and Co-Chairman respectively of the Trustee Gift Committee; Mr. Donovan R. Beachley, Sr., and Mr. Henry H. Gibbel, Chairman and Co-Chairman respectively of the Special Gifts Committee; Mr. Charles C. Ellis and Mr. Thomas A. Martin, Chairman and Co-Chairman respectively of the Corporation and Foundation Committee; Mr. Klare S. Sunderland, National Alumni Chairman; and Mr. Rex W. Hershberger, Church Campaign Chairman.

The College is now in the midst of launching Phase II of the three-phase effort. We were especially fortunate to receive $250,000 applicable to this Phase from the Charles A. Dana Foundation just prior to the announcement of Phase II with its $2.5-million objective. According to our agreement with the Dana Foundation, we will raise an additional $250,000 as part of our Phase II program so that the total fund of $500,000 will be placed in the endowment, the income of which will help to insure fully adequate salaries for four full professors. Additional endowment is urgently needed for support of teaching in general and for production of additional financial aid funds.

Further attention is being given to the formulation of the objectives for Phase II, which is to be directed primarily at special sources for larger gifts applicable to endowment and also to the completion of funding of Ellis Hall. An additional amount of $430,000 is needed to complete payment of the Ellis Hall project, the total cost of which is $2,600,000. Phase II was launched officially on October 17, 1970, with a joint meeting of the Board of Trustees and the President's Development Council. This will begin a two-year period when we will be working for the success of Phase I. The help of every trustee, President's Development Council member and of many alumni, parents and other friends will be essential in identifying and reaching substantial sources for the larger gifts that will be required.

When Phase II has been completed, we will, during 1973-1976, engage in a broadly based intensive campaign for at least $4.6-million. Phase III, like Phase I, will be aimed at all parts of the Juniata constituency while, as stated above, Phase II will be aimed primarily at special sources.

This is the year in which we have seen the necessity and the value of Juniata's first Annual Support Fund. Against a needed amount of at least $100,000, the Juniata constituency has responded enthusiastically, and I am pleased to report that cash gifts amounting to $115,458 were received prior to June 30. More than 2,250 alumni supported Juniata's development efforts—Margin of Difference and Annual Support Fund—during the past academic year. This is a ten percent increase over a record-breaking performance in 1968-69.

During June, 1970, Juniata was recognized by the American Alumni Council for its outstanding record of alumni giving. The College was awarded first place in competition with 367 small, private coeducational liberal arts colleges in the United States, and received from the United States Steel Foundation a $1,000 award and a stainless steel trophy.

Continued support by the Juniata constituency is the backbone of the College's financial future, and the record of achievement is indeed reassuring to all of us who are working diligently to advance the College's educational effectiveness.

JUNIATA TOMORROW

In these days we recognize that sound education is still a very urgent need in the lives of young people, especially those who have the promise of being tomorrow's leaders. Let us again dedicate ourselves to meeting these needs through the continued wisdom and generosity that have marked the work of trustees, faculty, alumni, students and other friends of Juniata in the past.

CHURCH OF THE BRETHREN— $28,051.83

In the first phase of the Margin of Difference Campaign the three districts of the Church of the Brethren, Middle, North Atlantic and Western, established a scholarship fund in memory of Alexander Mack, the founder of the Church. In the current 1969-70 year the Western District was organized for this project under the chairmanship of Mr. Willard Kimmel of Shelocta. The other two districts participated in the previous year. Gifts not committed to the scholarship were applied to the Annual Support Fund.

FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY

The "Friends of the Juniata Library" has been reactivated to encourage support of the College libraries in money and books. Many have helped through contributions of gifts of cash, and through books and collections of books. The President of the Organization in the 1969-1970 year was Mrs. Herbert A. Miller. Of special significance has been a gift of a total of 785 books and cash contributions from Dr. Aaron Rabinowitz, New York City.
